A Handbook of Organic Analyses
Qualitative and Quantitative
FIFTH EDITION
H. T. Clarke. Revised by B. Haynes with E. C. Brick and G. C. Shone
A compact but comprehensive treatment of qualitative and quantitative analysis of organic compounds. The classified tables of the commoner organic compounds are a major feature and will prove a valuable tool to chemists involved in organic analysis. Cloth £12 net. Paper £4.95 net

Industrial Mycology:
The Filamentous Fungi
VOLUME I
Edited by John E. Smith and David Berry
There is an increasing interest in the application of fungi in industrial processes. This book concentrates on the multi-cellular and filamentous fungi which, unlike the more well known yeast, have been neglected in the available literature. The authorship is international and drawn both from industry and research institutions. Cloth £12.50 net

A Biologist's Guide to
Principles and Techniques of Practical Biochemistry
Contemporary Biology Series
Edited by Bryan L. Williams and Keith Wilson
This is an introduction to the theory of biochemical techniques for biologists with a limited biochemical background. Experimental details are not included as the authors consider these are best dealt with as class 'hand-outs'. This book is intended as a complement to such material. Cloth £7.50 net. Paper £3.75 net

This volume records the proceedings of a symposium held in University College London in April 1974. Each of the ten papers is by an international authority and presents a survey of recent progress in certain aspects of the study of glycoproteins. Topics include methods of analysis, the nature of the carbohydrate–peptide linkage, heterogeneity of glycoproteins, sites of glycosylation, assembly of the carbohydrate moieties, immunoglobulin synthesis, sialic acid modifications, the role of sialic acid and the structure of blood-group-specific glycoproteins in normal and transformed cells.

CONTENTS

Effect of cellulose phosphate on calcium and magnesium homeostasis: studies in normal subjects and patients with latent hypoparathyroidism. By A. M. PARFIT

Effect of cellulose phosphate and dietary calcium restriction in primary hyperparathyroidism. By A. M. PARFIT

Liposomes as vehicles for the local release of drugs. By A. W. SEGAL, G. GREGORIADIS and C. D. V. BLACK

Chronic effects of chlorothiazide on reabsorption by the proximal tubule of the rat. By E. J. WEINMAN and G. EKNOYAN

Continuous blood sampling: a modified double-lumen catheter. By D. B. GARRIOCH

The actions of bradykinin and edeasin in the canine isolated kidney: relationships to prostaglandins. By J. C. MCGIFF, H. D. ITS Kovitz and N. A. TERRA

Total body potassium in children, with particular reference to coeliac disease. By K. BODDY, PRISCILLA C. KING and F. CARSWELL

Effect of progesterone on renal sodium handling in man: relation to aldosterone excretion and plasma renin activity. By SUZANNE OPARIL, E. N. EHRLICH and M. D. LINDHEIMER

Soluble high-molecular-weight E fragments in the plasmin-induced degradation products of cross-linked human fibrin. By P. J. GAFFNEY, D. A. LANE and M. BRASHER

Effect of liver failure on the response of ventilation and cerebral circulation to carbon dioxide in man and in the goat. By N. N. STANLEY, B. G. SALISBURY, L. C. MCHENRY, Jr and N. S. CHERNIACK

Analytical subcellular fractionation of human granulocytes with reference to the localization of vitamin-B12-binding proteins. By S. P. KANE and T. J. PETERS

SHORT COMMUNICATION

Adrenal weight and catecholamine content in renal and calciferol-induced hypertension in rabbits. By JENNIFER E. ANGSELL-JAMES and D. A. POWISS

Subscription: £2.00 ($7.50) per part; £20.00 ($70.00) per year.
